

Attract common backyard birds and critters by learning their food preferences. Find your favorites in the group numbers below, then refer to the to the Wild Bird Feeding Guide on the other side of this sheet to see the foods they like to eat.

Northern Evening Grosbeak Big beaks work well on bigger seeds like Sunflower Seeds.

WILD BIRD FEEDING GUIDE

Look on the other side of this guide to find the wild birds and critters you wish to attract to your yard. Locate their group number, then match it to the appropriate food below. Starred numbers represent their favorite foods!

PREMIUM BLEND

High-quality economy blend with sunflower seeds and wholesome grains.

WILD FINCH

A special mix of finches' favorite sunflower hearts, thistle seed and millet.

SUNFLOWER HEARTS

A nutritious, high-energy favorite with no messy shells.

BLACK OIL SUNFLOWER

Rich in healthy fat and protein and enjoyed by most birds.

NYJER[©] SEED

High-energy seed loved by finches, especially goldfinches, and other small birds.

PEANUT PIECES

Popular protein-rich treat enjoyed by a variety of backyard birds and critters.

SONGBIRD CARDINAL

Premium blend of cardinal favorites including high-energy sunflower and safflower seeds.

CRACKED CORN

All-purpose food enjoyed by a variety of wild birds and critters.

NEW! CORN-FREE SUPREME

Wholesome blend of millet, sunflower, safflower, and peantus to attract songbirds.

SIGNATURE BLEND

High-quality blend with sunflower, grains, millet, peanuts, and safflower.

SAFFLOWER SEED

A high-protein favorite loved by cardinals and disliked by squirrels.

SQUIRREL & CRITTER

Crunchy mix of corn, sunflower, peanuts, and pumpkin seeds for backyard critters.

